

ASEES Presentations in the Field of Genocide Studies

Session	Date	Time	Speaker	Paper Title
V8-04 Stalin-Era Collectivization, Manufacture, and Wartime Collaboration - VR4	October 20th	3:15-5:00 pm	Bohdan Klid	"'Innovation' and Enforcement: Viacheslav Molotov and Grain Procurements in Ukraine, 1927-32"
1-08 Charity, Need, and Responsibility in Imperial and Early Soviet Russia - Meeting Room 303, 3rd Floor	November 30	1:00 – 2:45 pm	Rebecca Manley	"From Daily Bread to the Body: Assessing Need in Late Imperial and Early Soviet Famines"
1-10"Archival Art": Discourses of Evidence and Post-Yugoslav Cultural Production - Meeting Room 305, 3rd Floor	November 30	1:00 – 2:45 pm	Zdenko Mandusic	Questioning the Archive: Revising Audiovisual Memory of Genocide in Quo Vadis, Aida?
1-31 Decolonizing Cold War Justice: Tensions and Boundaries between Politics and Justice behind the Iron Curtain - Salon A, 5th Floor	November 30	1:00 – 2:45 pm	Yurii Kaparulin	Concealment, Denial, and Instrumentalization of Genocide: From Late Stalinism to Contemporary Putinism
1-34 Lies and Politics in Imperial, Soviet, and Post-socialist Russia - Salon D, 4th Floor	November 30	1:00 – 2:45 pm	Aaron Benyamin Retish	True Lies in the Soviet Countryside: State Officials and the Dilemma of Peasant Duplicity in the Early Soviet Village
1-41 Socialist Humanitarianism: Red Cross in the Eastern Bloc: Relief Missions, Blood Donation, Care for the Elderly, and Propaganda, 1920s-1980s - Salon L, 5th Floor	November 30	1:00 – 2:45 pm	Hanna Matt	"Soviet Relief?: Refugees, Famine, and the Red Cross in the Turkestan ASSR, 1921-1923"
2-10 The Nazi Genocide of the Roma and the Struggle for Justice - Meeting Room 305, 3rd Floor	November 30	3:00 – 4:45 pm	David M. Crowe	"The Roma and the Holocaust: Law and Reparations"

2-10 The Nazi Genocide of the Roma and the Struggle for Justice - Meeting Room 305, 3rd Floor	November 30	3:00 – 4:45 pm	Ari Joskowicz	"Roma and Jews in Nazi War Crimes Trials"
2-10 The Nazi Genocide of the Roma and the Struggle for Justice - Meeting Room 305, 3rd Floor	November 30	3:00 – 4:45 pm	Steven A. Usitalo	"The Genocide of the Roma in Soviet Historiography"
4-38 The Soviet Gulag and Justice System in the Post-War Period - Salon I, 5th Floor	December 1st	10:00-11:45 am	Emily D Johnson	"Gulag Letter-Writing amidst Post-War Famine and Hardship"
8-01 The Death and Legacy of Stalin: New Insights after 70 Years - (Roundtable) - Franklin Hall 1, 4th Floor	December 2nd	10:00 – 11:45 am	Nadia G. Boyadjieva, Anna Graf-Steiner, Hiroaki Kuromiya, Peter Ruggenthaler, George Soroka, Nina Tumarkin,
10-37 Vice President-Designated Roundtable: Soviet Famine or Famines (1932-34)?: A Reassessment 90 Years after the Holodomor - (Roundtable) - Salon G & H, 5th Floor	December 2nd	2:00 - 3:45 pm	Vitaly Chernetsky, Olga Andriewsky, Mark Edele, Andrea Graziosi, Bohdan Klid, Daria Mattingly, Lynne Viola
11-04 Economics and Historical Political Economy over Four Centuries - Franklin Hall 4, 4th Floor	December 2nd	4:00-5:45 pm	Natalya Naumenko	"The 1922-23 Soviet Famine"
11-33 Holodomor-Genocide in Ukraine Then, Russia's Genocide Now: Crime without Punishment - Salon C, 5th Floor	December 2nd	4:00-5:45 pm	Myroslava Antonovych	"The Importance of Accountability for Russia's Genocide against the Ukrainian Nation"
11-33 Holodomor-Genocide in Ukraine Then, Russia's	December 2nd	4:00-5:45 pm	Kristina Hook	"The Dangers of Unacknowledged Genocide:"

Genocide Now: Crime without Punishment - Salon C, 5th Floor				The Policy Implications of Russia's Genocide in Ukraine"
11-33 Holodomor-Genocide in Ukraine Then, Russia's Genocide Now: Crime without Punishment - Salon C, 5th Floor	December 2nd	4:00-5:45 pm	Victoria A. Malko	"The U.S. and the Holodomor"
12-18 Survival, Resilience, and Resistance: Countering Authoritarian Violence - Meeting Room 403, 4th Floor	December 3rd	8:00 – 9:45 am	Orysia Maria Kulick	"Traumas and Testimonies: How Do Victims of Authoritarianism Confront Trauma, Tell Their Stories, and Find Possibilities for Resistance?"
12-18 Survival, Resilience, and Resistance: Countering Authoritarian Violence - Meeting Room 403, 4th Floor	December 3rd	8:00 – 9:45 am	Lilia Topouzova	"Intergenerational Trauma: The Afterlife of Political Violence in the Families of Gulag and Prison Survivors"
12-33 New Approaches to Famine and Holodomor Studies: History, Environment, and Memory - Salon C, 5th Floor	December 3rd	8:00 – 9:45 am	Oksana Vynnyk	"History of the Famine from Below: Holodomor Historiography in the Context of Famine Studies"
12-33 New Approaches to Famine and Holodomor Studies: History, Environment, and Memory - Salon C, 5th Floor	December 3rd	8:00 – 9:45 am	Iryna Skubii,	"Looking from the Ground Level: Environmental History on Ukraine's Holodomor"
12-33 New Approaches to Famine and Holodomor Studies: History, Environment, and Memory - Salon C, 5th Floor	December 3rd	8:00 – 9:45 am	Artem Kharchenko	"Forcible Transfers of Children as a Memory That Returned with the War"
13-36 Food and Hunger in Times of Post-Imperial Transition I: Survival Strategies - Salon F, 5th Floor	December 3rd	10:00 – 11:45 am	Václav Šmidrkal	"To Hang or to Heroize?: Food Shortages, Black Markets, and the Limits of Criminalization in the Bohemian Lands around 1918"

13-36 Food and Hunger in Times of Post-Imperial Transition I: Survival Strategies - Salon F, 5th Floor	December 3rd	10:00 – 11:45 am	Maja Godina Golija	"Food Supply in Maribor, 1918–1921: Between Rationing, Riots, and the Black Market"
13-36 Food and Hunger in Times of Post-Imperial Transition I: Survival Strategies - Salon F, 5th Floor	December 3rd	10:00 – 11:45 am	Doina Anca Cretu	"Food Crises and Humanitarian Relief for 'Refugees-in-Return' in Austria-Hungary's Successor States"
13-36 Food and Hunger in Times of Post-Imperial Transition I: Survival Strategies - Salon F, 5th Floor	December 3rd	10:00 – 11:45 am	Mary Catherine Neuburger	"Feeding Chaos: Hunger at the End and in the Aftermath of World War I in Bulgaria"
13-38 The Holocaust and East Central European Politics in Modern Day Commemoration, Perception, and Public History - Salon I, 5th Floor	December 3rd	10:00 – 11:45 am	Alina Nowobilaska	"Auschwitz in the Popular Imagination"
13-38 The Holocaust and East Central European Politics in Modern Day Commemoration, Perception, and Public History - Salon I, 5th Floor	December 3rd	10:00 – 11:45 am	Jonathan Waxman	"Contextualizing Persecuted Composers: Performing Karel Reiner's Bass Sonata on College Campuses"
13-38 The Holocaust and East Central European Politics in Modern Day Commemoration, Perception, and Public History - Salon I, 5th Floor	December 3rd	10:00 – 11:45 am	Karen Lin Uslin	"Another Side of Memory: Roman Catholic Commemoration and Education of the Holocaust"
13-38 The Holocaust and East Central European Politics in Modern Day Commemoration, Perception, and Public History - Salon I, 5th Floor	December 3rd	10:00 – 11:45 am	Pawel Markiewicz	"Memory and Commemoration in the Face of Postwar Reconstruction and Reorder"
14-31 Relationships between People and	December 3rd	12:00 – 1:45 pm	Karolina Koziura	"Collective Trauma, Diaspora Counter-Archives, and

History under and in Response to Socialism - Salon A, 5th Floor				Transnational Reckonings with Repressed History of the Famine of 1932-1933"
14-36 Food and Hunger in Times of Post-Imperial Transition II: Transnational Relief - Salon F, 5th Floor	December 3rd	12:00 – 1:45 pm	Dagmar Hajkova	"Promoting the State through Food Scarcity: The Case of Czechoslovakia between 1918 and 1920"
14-36 Food and Hunger in Times of Post-Imperial Transition II: Transnational Relief - Salon F, 5th Floor	December 3rd	12:00 – 1:45 pm	Friederike Johanna Kind-Kovács	"A Swedish Samaritan in Central Europe?: Asta Nielsson's Relief Mission to Budapest from WWI to WWII"
14-36 Food and Hunger in Times of Post-Imperial Transition II: Transnational Relief - Salon F, 5th Floor	December 3rd	12:00 – 1:45 pm	Rok Stergar	"Hopes, Promises, Realities: Foreign Aid and Food Scarcity in the Slovene Part of Yugoslavia"