ENTRY FORM - CONQUEST PRIZE

for CONTRIBUTION to HOLODOMOR STUDIES

The Conquest Prize for Contribution to Holodomor Studies is awarded on a biennial basis to the author of an outstanding article published in English, in a print or online publication, that contributes to a fuller understanding of the Holodomor. A jury of eminent specialists is assembled to determine the winner of the $2500 CAD prize. The Conquest Prize honours historian Robert Conquest, author of the groundbreaking work The Harvest of Sorrow: Soviet Collectivization and the Terror-Famine.

Entries will be accepted for articles published between January 20, 2025, and the submission deadline, which is January 20, 2027.

Please send the following by email, to hrec@ualberta.ca, using the subject line CONQUEST PRIZE NOMINATION:

1) Completed application form (see below)
2) PDF of the article
3) CV of the author
4) Abstract of article in English (max. one page)
5) Optional: A short summary of why you think this article constitutes an exceptional contribution to a fuller understanding of the Holodomor.

*Author's Name:_____

*Title of Article:_____

*Publisher:_____

*Publication (if online, please provide full url):

_____

*Publication date: _____

For articles translated into English, please provide publishing information (publisher, date) for original language publication:

*Name of person submitting and relation to author (if other than author):

_____

Date: _____

For more about the Conquest Prize and HREC, visit holodomor.ca

HREC
HOLODOMOR RESEARCH AND EDUCATION CONSORTIUM
Canadian Institute of Ukrainian Studies
University of Alberta